SOME PEOPLE ON LINKEDIN THINK I'M GOOD AT:

Leadership
Public Speaking
Management

I THINK I AM PRETTY GOOD AT THOSE THINGS BUT ALSO:

Listening
Finding Win-Wins
Not Being A Jerk

PRODUCT MANAGER

New York Ave.
June 2017 - Present

I ensure our website and app production operate smoothly from start to finish. In practice that means I manage relationships and deadlines with collaborators, provide design oversight and facilitation to ensure our design standard is maintained as we scale, and ensure the head of the company is up to speed on the essentials only.

I also manage recruitment and candidate inquiries. I seek, contact, interview, hire, and train developers to collaborate with New York Ave on website and app development.

UX DEVELOPER

New York Ave.
January 2016 - June 2017

Helped make digital marketing personal for 30+ SMEs by designing, testing, and coding user experiences in a modern front-end stack. Collaborated daily with founder and CEO including strategy and financial considerations. Tools used: JavaScript, jQuery, SCSS, gulp, Git, Illustrator, InDesign, whiteboard.

INNOVATION LABS FACILITATOR (CONTRACT ROLE)

The Dali Museum Innovation Labs
August 2015 - Present

When the stakes are high, lackluster meetings are not acceptable. In short, we facilitate meetings that inspire clarity and action and typically work with executive teams and supporting leadership.
